

It is my understanding that Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to have their stations air "Stolen Honor," which is more propaganda than documentary, is illegal. Would you please look into this issue?

Also, if we hope to maintain a democracy here in the U.S., we need to strengthen, not weaken, media ownership rules.

Thank you for considering this.